If you would like to exercise any of your rights in relation to your Personal Data or require further information on the scope of any such rights, please contact our Data Protection Officer (see the contact details in last section of this Privacy Policy).

What Should You Do If Your Personal Information Changes?

As the accuracy of your Personal Data depends largely on the information you or such third party provide to us, you should inform us in writing as soon as practicable if there are any errors in the Personal Data or if there have been any changes to the Personal Data. Any errors or incomplete Personal Data may prevent us providing Services to you or may lead us to provide partial or incorrect Services.

If you were introduced to us by a broker or other intermediary who is data controller in its own right, you should contact them separately.

Do We Use Cookies And Related Technologies?

We use a variety of technologies on our website and mobile applications to collect information that helps us understand how our Services are used so we can refine our Services and simplify the user experience. A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that is stored on your device when you visit a website or use an app. Cookies may expire at the end of a web session or app or persist in order to store your settings and preferences. A web beacon, also known as a pixel tag, is a tiny transparent image embedded in a website or an email to measure usage and activity. In some case, a web beacon triggers the placements of a persistent cookie on your computer.

Cookies collect information about users and their visit to the website or use of the app, such as their Internet protocol (IP) address, how they arrived at the website (for example, through a search engine or a link from another website) and how they navigate within the website or app. We use cookies and other technologies to facilitate your internet sessions and use of our apps, offer you products and/or Services according to your preferred settings, track use of our website and apps and to compile statistics about activities carried out on our website and/or through our apps.

'Cookie' types

The type of Cookies and other tracking technologies used on our online platforms can be categorized as follows:

Strictly Necessary Cookies. As the name suggests, these are cookies that are required for the operation of our online platforms. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our online platforms, make purchases and avail our Services. Without these Cookies, you will not be able to access some parts of our online platforms. These Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user.

Performance Cookies. They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our online platforms. This helps us to improve the way our online platforms works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily. These Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user.

Functionality Cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our online platforms. These Cookies enable us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region). These cookies may collect your personal information to the extent you have disclosed, and if you do not accept these Cookies, then it may restrict the content on our online platforms, and affect the performance and functionality of our online platforms to you.

Targeting and Third Party Cookies. These Cookies record your visit to our online platforms, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We may engage with a number of third-party service providers who may also install Cookies on your device on our behalf when you access our online platforms to allow them to deliver you custom-made advertisement within their webpage. We will use this information to make our online platforms and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. When you browse our online platforms some of the third party Cookies may be installed on your device who provide its features on our online platforms, although you may have declined your consent to our Cookies. This is due to your acceptance to use their Cookies on their website. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

You may set up your web browser to block cookies. You may also remove cookies stored from your computer or mobile device. However, if you do block cookies, you may not be able to use certain features and functions of our website.

We also use analytics programs such as Google Analytics for web analytics purposes to manage and improve our website, mobile apps and/or our Services. Accordingly, your Personal Data may be collected for reports such as impression reporting, demographic reporting, interest reporting and to assist with tailoring our online advertising to provide you with a better experience.

We and our third-party vendors and service providers, including Google, use first-party cookies (such as the Google Analytics cookie) or other first-party identifiers, and third-party cookies (such as Google advertising cookies) or other third-party identifiers together, to inform, analyse, optimise, and serve custom ads based on your interests, searches and prior usage patterns when visiting our website, mobile apps, and for other market research analysis purposes such as impression reporting and how your interactions with these ads are related to visits to our website, mobile apps, amongst others. As a consequence, third party vendors and service providers may show our ads on other websites or mobile apps. We neither support nor endorse the goals, causes or statements of these websites or mobile apps which display our ads.

Using the Google Ad Settings, you may control the ads you view, block specific advertisers, learn how ads are selected for you, and opt-out of Google Analytics for Display Advertising. To opt out from any collection or use of information by Google Analytics, please download and install the Google Analytics Opt-Out Browser Add-on or any other available means. By opting out, you will not be subject to online advertising or marketing analysis by Google Analytics and you will no longer receive ads tailored to your browsing patterns and usage preferences.

Our website may contain links to other websites which are not maintained by us. This Privacy Policy only applies to our website, mobile apps, and/or our Services. When visiting these third-party websites, you should read their privacy policies which will apply to your use of these third-party websites.

Do We Record or Monitor Any Communications?
